Dear Met:

I am most appreciative of your taking the trouble to congratulate me at this time. One's pleasure in awards is, after all, that they reflect the goodwill and appreciation of others, but especially when the others are friends and associates.

Thank you. The whole experience is exhilarating but also rather sobering. In any case, however, we feel warm and grateful to you and Marian for your feelings.

Sincerely,

Kenneth J. Arrow
Professor of Economics
